2.2. Why do we need your personal information?

As an elected representative, Anum Qaisar MP will only be able to look into concerns which you raise if she and her staff can use your personal information, in order to raise enquiries with relevant agencies on your behalf. Anum Qaisar MP also requires your personal information so that she and her staff can keep you informed about the progress of any enquiries that she or her staff may make on your behalf, as well as contact you with the outcome(s) of any such enquiries.

Anum Qaisar MP also regularly receives emails or other forms of correspondence from constituents who wish to lobby her about certain policy issues or upcoming events, debates and votes in the UK Parliament. In order to respond effectively to such enquiries, Anum Qaisar MP requires personal information so that she can provide more details about her position and views on the matters which you raised with her.

Anum Qaisar MP also receives information about individuals from third parties, which can include (and is not limited to) friends/relatives of constituents in situations where the constituent cannot get in touch directly, legal representatives acting on behalf of a constituent or situations where constituents raise queries or complaints about other people. This information is processed in line with the GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018, using one of the legal bases set out in section 2.3 below.

Anum Qaisar MP also operates an email newsletter, which gives constituents who wish to opt-in the opportunity to receive further general updates on her campaigns and activities as a Member of Parliament. This newsletter is a marketing communication, therefore opt-in consent will always be requested before any such communication is sent to you, in line with the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003. In order to provide you with updates on her activities as a Member of Parliament in this format, provided you have consented to receiving such updates, Anum Qaisar MP requires your email address and postal address to send you these updates.

2.3. What types of personal data do we collect and process?

In some circumstances, it may be necessary for Anum Qaisar MP or her staff to collect special categories of data about you. This could include your racial or ethnic origin, religious or political beliefs, sexual orientation, health information or details of any criminal convictions or allegations of criminal activity. This information will only be collected where it is materially relevant to the enquiry you raised with us.

2.4. How will we use your personal data?

The personal data we collect will be used for the following purposes:

- Recording of the personal data on a database (caseworker.mp, which is managed by Elected Technologies Ltd) in order to efficiently manage and respond to enquiries made to Anum Qaisar MP or her staff. This database is accessed through secure log in authentication processes.
- Carrying out constituency casework, which can include any or all of the following processes:
 - Making enquiries on your behalf when you have raised a concern/issue that you would like Anum Qaisar MP to pursue with a relevant agency or organisation.
 - Updating constituents on the progress of any enquiries raised on their behalf.
 - Highlighting cases in Parliament in order to effect changes on Government policy.

- Providing constituents with information about Anum Qaisar MP's position on a particular policy issue or on upcoming events, debates and votes in the UK Parliament, when such requests have been made either directly by the data subject or from the data subject acting through an organised lobbying campaign.
- Where constituents have opted-in to receive such information, to send newsletters and other forms of electronic marketing communication via email.
- Photos and videos taken in connection with my engagements and events Anum Qaisar MP attends in her capacity as an MP may be shared via her website, newsletter and social media profiles such as Facebook and Twitter.

2.5. Lawful basis

The GDPR sets out a number of lawful bases under which personal data can be processed. We will always ensure that we have a lawful basis for processing your personal data. This will be one of the following bases:

- Public Task - In accordance with the discharge of key functions of a Member of Parliament and their office in responding to requests for assistance from you.
- Vital Interests - Where a request is made by someone else (e.g. a legal representative or a friend/relative), data is processed in circumstances where consent cannot be given by, or expected to be obtained from, you or where obtaining such consent would prejudice actions taken by Anum Qaisar MP in your vital interests.
- Consent - With your explicit consent. You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting Anum Qaisar MP or her staff using the contact details provided above.

2.6. Disclosure

We may pass your personal data on to third party service providers in the course of dealing with your enquiry, such as local authorities, government agencies, public bodies, health boards, housing associations, regulators, and so on. Any third parties that we may share your data with are obliged to keep your details secure, and to use them only to provide us with information relating to the specific enquiry you have raised with Anum Qaisar MP.

Anum Qaisar MP also contracts third party providers to provide specific services for the effective discharge of the functions of her office, for example in efficiently managing responses to individual enquiries and maintaining records of individual

2.7. Retention period

The office of Anum Qaisar MP will store personal data for as long as it is required to progress enquiries made on your behalf or, if you have opted in to receive them, marketing communications regarding her activities and campaigns as a Member of Parliament. Data related to closed or resolved constituent enquiries, lobbying and casework will be retained until the next UK General Election at which point the data will be destroyed unless you grant permission to retain this data. This is necessary in case any further issues arise with respect to your initial enquiry.

Photos and videos in connection with Anum Qaisar MP's engagements will be stored for the duration of her service as an MP, unless an individual requests that their data be deleted.

Should Anum Qaisar MP decide not to contest a future election, or should she leave office early as a result of resignation or death, all personal data will continue to be held for a period of up to two months after Anum Qaisar MP leaves office, during which her office will be wound up. During that two-month winding up period, you may be contacted for permission to pass your case files to another elected representative. If we do not receive a response within that period, your data will be securely destroyed at the end of the two-month winding up period.

2.8. Your rights as a data subject

At any point while we are in possession of or processing your personal data, you, the data subject, have the following rights:

- Right of access – you have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you.
- Right of rectification – you have a right to correct data that we hold about you that is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Right to be forgotten – in certain circumstances you can ask for the data we hold about you to be erased from our records.
- Right to restriction of processing – where certain conditions apply to have a right to restrict the processing.
- Right of portability – you have the right to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation.
- Right to object – you have the right to object to certain types of processing such as direct marketing.
- Right to judicial review: in the event that the office of Anum Qaisar MP refuses your request under rights of access, we will provide you with a reason as to why. You have the right to complain as outlined in section 2.9 below.

All of the above requests will be forwarded on, should there be a third party involved (as stated in section 2.6 above) in the processing of your personal data.
